Social News From All Parts of Virginia in Sunday's Times-Dispatch.

POLICE OFFICERS

Special Meeting of the Petersburg Councils Held for the Purpose.

CONFEDERATE VETS TO MEET

Telephone Company Granted Permission to Run Its Wires Underground.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) , PETERSBURG, VA., September 28.— The Board of Aldermen and Council, in joint session, at a special meeting this afternoon, reinstated Police Officers J. E. Collier and J. J. Heelan, who were suspended September 8th for alleged violation of rules.

The charges were first investigated by ing from them to the City Councils, which reinstated the suspended policemen by a vote of nineteen to seven.

The accused officers were represented by Mr. James M. Quicke, Jr.

A subcommittee from the Board of Al-A subcommittee from the Board of Aldermen and Council, consisting of Messrs. Carter R. Bishop, Waiter N. Jones and W. L. Enniss, accompanied by City Engineer Budd, made a tour of inspection of sidewalks in need of repair in various parts of the city this morning. This subcommittee was appointed to fake charge of this department of numicipal improvement.

RUN UNDERGROUND WIRES.

The Petersburg Telephone Company, which has been granted permission by the Board of Aldermen and Council, to place its wires underground, has an electrical engineer now in the city to make place its wires underground, has an electrical engineer now in the city to make the necessary surveys and plans for that work, which will be begun on Bank Street, where the first conduits for wires will soon be laid.

Eminent Bir W. B. McChesney, a popular and distinguished Templar of Staunton, and an officer of the Grand Commandery of Virginia, will visit officially and inspect Appomation Commandery, No. 6, of this city, next Tuesday. Bir Knight McChesney will be the guest of Past Grand Commander John E. Townes. The Templars of Petersburg are making extensive preparations or his reception and entertainment, and will give a banquet in his honor.

Mrs. Charles R. Walsh, who has been very ill for several days at the Home for the Sick, is said to be in a more favorable condition this evening. Mrs. Walsh was operated upon for appendicitis Monday night.

CONFEDERATE VETS TO MFET.

General Stith Boiling, commanding the First Brigade, Virginia Divis n, United Confederate Veterans, has isseed a general order, dated September 18th, to all Confederate camps in his jurisdiction, announcing the annual meeting of the Grand Camp of Virginia in Petersburg, October 25th-27th, and urging the appointment of delegates in the proportion of one to every twenty members with alternates.

ternates.
A. P. Hill Camp, of this city, has sent special invitations to the ontederate camps of the State to rarticinate in the grand parade here during the meeting o' the Grand Camp.

KICKED BY HORSE.

Mr. Hansborough Receives Injuries of a Serious Nature.

iuries of a Serious Nature.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MORRISVILLE, VA., September 28.

Mr. Ashton Hansborough, a prominent business man of Elk Run, a noted horseman and a very successful fox hunter, went out to the pasture to catch a horse last Sunday afternoon, and had just mountlyd when anighter horse kicked him in the back, knocking him clear off of the horse, where he was discovered some-time later by Mr. H. L. Pavne while accidentally passing. Mr. Payne secured assistance and had him conveyed to the house, where he has lain ever since, unable to make the slightest movement without the most excrudating pain. Dr. William Cook holds out hope of his ultimate recovery, Mr. Hansborough's wife and mother are both in bed suffering with typhoid fever of a most malignant form. There are several cases in the vicinity, with one death, Mr. J. N. Kiser has in the past few days sold his valuable fruit, stock and hay farm of 250 acres, near this place, to Mr. Bruce, of Cuipeper.

An elegant lumbeoon had been served a wre, the hope of the horse, which was much enjoyed by many guests and attendants.

Parker—Thornton.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEXINGTON, VA. Sept. 28.—A pretty anise.

Day arriage took place at Buena Vista. Tuesday evening, September 28th, the Toesday evening, Septem

THE WIDOW RECOVERS.

Contention That Husband Was Suicide Does Not Prevail.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Sentember 28.

Ne the Elizabeth City county Circuit Court to-day Mrs. Maud M. Harlan received a verdiet for two thousand doilars against the Grand Fraternity, a fraternal insurance order, in which her husband carried a policy for that amount.
Harlan died in a Western city more than twelve months ago, and it was re-if "you're trom missouri"

every merchant says his hati are "the best," but usually you have to take his word for it, we know ours are the best, and will leave it to your judgment after you

"show yourself"

soft hats, in browns, pearls and blacks, alpines and the low crowns, that may be worn creased, dented or telescoped.

soft stiff hats [54]

poindexter,

kirk-parrish co., 412 east broad, . richmond. hatters furnishers tallors.

Reasons

Why Wizard Oil stands alone as the best pain remedy known.

It penetrates the porce of the skin.
It reaches the seat of the trouble.
It drives out the pain.
It cares the disease.

Proofs

The many testimonials received from all parts of the country, sent by thousands of grateful people who have been relieved from suffering and cured of painful allments by the use of Hamilins Wizard Oil.

The medicine whose stand and is upheld.

Popular because of its merit.

Time tried and true.

Price, 50c. and $1.00.

DRUGGISTS

ported that he was a stilede. The order resisted payment on that ground A corps of engineers is engaged in surveying the route for the new railway from Newport News to Yorktown. Arrangements are being made for terminals in the city and con-rangements are being made for terminals in this city and in Yorktown, and construction will begin as soon as the route is surveyed.

The schooner Job H. Jack on, which was run down Monday night by the Bayport, will be raised and brought here for repairs. She is said to have a hole twenty feet square in her nuit. The Bayport is in dry dock here, and the plan to libel her cannot be carried out until she is again afoat.

JACKSON-LIPSCOMB.

A Popular Young Couple Are

A Popular Young Couple Are

Married at Randolph, Va.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RANDOLPH, VA., Sept. 28.—The marriage of Miss Fannle Lipscomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Lipscomb, of this county, to Mr. Sandey Jackson, took place at Hermon Presbyterian Church at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Frainham, uncle of the bride; was the officiating minister.

Festoons of evergreens and white flowers formed the decorations, and an arch graced the place of honor near the pulpit. A song, sweetly sung by Miss Susie Parls, organist, charmed the harge congregation while waiting for the bridal party. As soon as the bride entered the church the strains of Mendelssonn's Wedding March swelled from the organ, then fell to a subdued murmur, as the ceremony proceeded.

The bride, who has been a teacher and very popular in the neighborhood, was beautifully and tastefully dressed and carried a shower bouquet. The ten attending bridesmalds were dressed in white, white silk girdles, and carried white flowers. Miss Mary Williams Paris, mald of honor, were white geraniums in her hair, and her costume was a miracle of beauty.

The grouping of the party about the arch, which was radiant with the light of dozens of candles, was effective and pleasing.

The groom, a popular young business man of the county, was attended by his best man and many of his friends were present.

Among those from a distance were his best man and many of his friends were present.

Among those from a distance were Mrs. Bolling, of Mobile, Ala., who is on a visit to her uncle, Mr. Paul McPhalli Mrs. Baker, of Charleston, S. C., and Mrs. Rollins, of Carolina county, Va. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the bridegroom's home eixteen miles distant, where a large reception was given, and where the happy couple will reside for the present.

An elegant luncheon had been served by Mrs. Lipscomb, the bride's mother, in her hospitable home, which was much enjoyed by many guests and attendants.

Hammock-Cralle.

Hammock—Cralle.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WARSAW, VA., Sept. 28.—The social event of the season was the marriage at 5 o'clock this morning at Calvary M. E. Church, in Richmond country, of Miss Margaret Cralle, oldest daughter of Mrs. Minnine Cralle, to Mr. Marvin Hammock, both of Emmerton. Rev. W. S. Davis performed the coremony. Miss Edith Cralle, sister of the bride, was mail of honor, and Mr. Ashby Lyell, best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. B. B. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Hammock left immediately after the marriage for Baltimore and Wilmington, Del., and other points on their wedding tour.

Minor-Chinn.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA. Sept. 28.— Mr. Ernest Minor and Miss Sarah B. China, both of this city, were married here last night by Rev. J. H. Light, of the Methodist Church.

Vaughan—Quarles.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SOUTH BOSTON, VA., Sept, 28.—Mrs.
Minhie Quarles and Mr. J. G. Vaughan, both of News Ferry, were quietly married at the Episoopal Church at this place Monday night, Rev. D. C. Mayers, officiating.

Kesler-Leffel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., Sept. 28.—Mr. Thomas

H. Kesler, a prominent business man of Springwood, Botelourt county, and Miss Sallie Leffel, daughter of Mr. F. R. Leffel, a fruit-grower of the same neighborhood, were married in this city last night, Rev. R. J. Dogan, officiating.

Springwood, Botelour county, and Miss Sallie Leffel, daughter of Mr. F. R. Leffel, a fruit-grower of the same neighbor-hood, were married in this city last night, Rev. R. J. Dogan, officiating.

Diphtheria at Williamsburg, (Special to The Times-Dispatch)
WILLIAM AND MARY COLLEGE, VA. September 28.—Diphtheria has broken out in Williamsburg, and two students here, who were bearding at the house in which the disease appeared have been quarantined and placed in the college infirmary. By the prompt measures taken it is thought that all chance of the disease appearing at the college has been destroyed.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., September 28.—The sixth blennial convention of the Masonic Relief Association for the United States and Canada ended to-day, to mest in Louisylle, Ky., in 1907. The following officers-were elected:

President, Charles F. Strum, of Buckers, Doy, 10, D. C.; Secretary, John R. Pope, of New York: Treasurer, Dr. George Brock-diege infirmary, By the prompt measures taken it is thought that all chance of the disease appearing at the college has been destroyed.

Eight Officer: Resign As Result of Differences in the Congregation.

THE ANTILLIAN DETAINED

Held in Quarantine and Feared She Has "Serious Sick-

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., September 28.-Eight of the officials of the Berkley Avenue Baptist Church, Berkley, have resigned. They are F. C. Hough, treasurer; L. B. Allen, secretary; three deacons, two members of the Music Committee and Mr. Hough also resigned as superintendent of the Sunday school. Dr. J. H. Costenbader has been elected secretary, and W. G. Pritchard, treasurer, but the trouble is not over. There was no reason assigned for the resignations, but there has been friction in the congregation for a long time because of the peculiar doctrines of Dr. J. C. Ramary, the pastor, as to the condition of cantification and holiness. When he leaves, as he expects to do, it is expected that there will be a split in the church. There are two factions in the church, and those who resigned belong to one of these.

and those who resigned belong to one of these.

THE SHIP IS DETAINED.
The first ship from Galveston to be detained here was the British steamship Antillian, Captain Howell, which arrived this afternoon. She is a tramp ship which salled from Tampico, September 8th, and from Galveston, September 2ist, with a cargo of cotton. She was held in quarantine after she entered the Virginia Capes, and wtherefore, the marine men here believe that she must have serious sickness aboard, as no ship marine men here believe that she must have serious sickness aboard, as no ship from Gaiveston, an uninfected port, has been held before.

COAL BY TIDEWATER RAILWAY.

Coal has begun to arrive here by the Tidewater Railway cars over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad from the coan Creak where on the Railway care. apeake and Onlo Rainord from the Loup Creek mines on the deepwater failway in West Virginia, thirty-five miles from Charleston. Shipments will continue that way till the Tidewater line is extended here to Sewall's Point, the Tidewater terminus. The cars have "Tidewater" painted on their red sides in creat latters.

"Tidewater" painted on their red sides in great letters.

The Duncan-Williams Company, conducting a big grocery business on Market Place, has made an assignment to George C. Cabell, trustee. Lack of capital to continue business, is stated as the cause of the failure. Members of the company place the liabilities at $5,700, and think that the concern's assets will end think that the concern's assets will amount to $12,000. There are no preferre-creditors. The firm was incorporated three years ago with a capital of $10,000. WOMAN NEARLY MURDERED.

Ida Marsh, a colored woman, employed at the residence of Mr. James Wilson, in Poortsmouth, was murderously assaulted.

at the residence of Mr. James Wilson, in Portsmouth, was murderously assaulted last night, by her husband, John Marsh. The couple separated some time ago, and last night Marsh went to the house where his wife was employed. He met her at the front door, and in his frenzy threw her down, and with a razor cut her throat from the left ear to the windpipe, exposing the jugular vein. Marsh cut his wife about the body and arms, and would have killed her, but for the fnterference of Mrs. Wilson, who went to the assistance of the woman. Marsh escaped and has not yet been captured.

JAWBONE IS SPLINTERED BY KICK OF A HORSE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Sopt. 28.—
Mr. Archie Embrey, of Stafford county, when he returned from the fair to his home last night, while unhitching his team, was kicked in the face by one of the horses and his lower jaw-bone was broken and splintered. Plysicians were summoned, but his condition is still critical.

Mrs. Bayliss Buried.

NEW KENT COURTHOUSE, Sept. 28.—
Mrs. C. W. Bayliss was buried at New Kent Chapel yesterday evening. She leaves a husband and eight children; also five sisters and five brothers. Mrs. Bayless once lived in this county, but a few years ago she moved to Richmond.
Mrs. J. N. Harris, of Richmond, is visiting her son and daughter of this county,
Mrs. Jordan, who has been in jall, charged with benting her sister, is out on ball until court day, in November.

Mr. Gilliam Paralyzed

Mr. Gilliam Paralyzed .

[(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OAK, VA., Sept. 28.—J C. Gilliam, postmaster and merchant, of this place, was paralyzed last Thursday morning and is now seriously ill.
All of his children were telegraphed for yesterday, but only two of them have yet arrived, Mrs. G. W. Bringley of Richmond, and Miss Lorine Gilliam, of the Woman's College, of Richmond. Mrs. A.
B. Woodcock, of Newport News, Va., and his other children are expected soon.

Nansemond Anti-Saloon League. Mansemond Anti-Saloon League.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SUFFOLK, VA., Sopt. 28.—The Nansemond County Anti-Saloon League was organized to-day at Driver, with the following officers: Rev. Dr. II. E. Johnson, secretary; J. O. Lancaster, I. A. Duke, Dr. George W. Brutts and Francis R. Birnor, vice-presidents, It was an all-day meeting, with dinner on the ground.

RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

Mr. Nesbitt Elected a Member of the Advisory Board.

(By Associated Press.) SYRACUSE, N. Y., September 28.—The

The New Store Opens tomorrow

Pick out your Fall Clothing now—Put it on and wear it Pay for it afterwards in small weekly or monthly payments

In opening this New Store in your City we ought first of all to tell you who we are and what we have done. We are by far the largest Credit Clothiers in the World, -We operate a Factory and 53 Stores.—We sell Clothing, Hats and Shoes on easy terms of payment at cash store prices.

We were the originators of the Credit Clothing System, and although imitators have sprung up and followed our methods,—we are still leaders.

We cordially invite everybody to come here and purchase Fall Clothing on easy terms. No references required---No red tape---No interest---No notes---No embarrassing questions or investigations.

Don't hesitate about coming here for Credit.—It's our busi ness to give credit, and we give it freely and cheerfully.

Women's Suits, Coats and Millinery

Beauty, Grace and Elegance stand out most prominently in the skillfully tailored suits we are showing this Fall. Long Coat Suits have the call and our many varieties in design, material and color, will fascinate any woman. Fall Coats are most charming in every way and the new Raincoats are smart all through.

You ought to see our Fall Display of Millinery—its exclusiveness will make you enthusiastic.

For Men and Boys

New Fall Suits for Men are as Nobby as they make them. Topcoats of snappy appearance.—New Hats in correct Suits for Big Boys, Little Boys and Boys in Between—Prices to suit your purso.

Our Men's Department is stocked to overflowing with the best produced.

Souvenirs to all Ladies

703 E. Broad St., Richmond, Va

Jury Finds Against Coast Line and Fixes the Damages at $10,000.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTERFIELD, V.A., September 28.—
The suit of Bessie Lozon vs. the Atlantic Coast Line Rallroad Company, resulted to-day in a verdet for $10,000 for the plaintiff. She suit for $15,000. wo former trials of the case last year, two former trials of the case last year, the juries could not agree. A motion to set the verdict aside was continued till the next term.

The trial begun Tuesday morning, and the case went to the jury about 5 o'clock this afternoon, after four hours of argument by C. W. Waddy and Judge Gregory for the plaintiff, and George B. Elifott and Hill Carter for the defense.

The case has occasioned much interest the county. The beloning a paid in the county. The plaintiff, a child of eleven years, was in a wagon with a party of four who were struck by the evening Cannon Ball train from Norfolk evening Cannon Ball train from Norfolk in September, two years ago, near Port Walthall. Two were killed, one, the plaintiff, maimed for life, while the fourth, a boy of three or four years, escaped injury. The Lozons, who were a large and intelligent family, were not ratives of Virginia, and had lived in this county only about a year prior to the dreadful accident. Their home was the old "Howlett house" on James River, opposite Dutch Gap Island. posite Dutch Gap Island.

Separate suits are now pending for damages for killing the mother and other child.

The main question at issue and around which the fight centered, was whether cr not the engineer blew his whistle are advancing. They have advanced twice this year and are expected to go still higher. We have a large stock, which was bought before the rise,

DIAMONDS

so if you want to make a good investment, buy

We will make terms to

J. S. JAMES,

Jeweler and Optician,

7th and Main Sts.

now at the old prices.

within the limit prescribed by law, and f not, whether his failure was the prox-mate cause of the child's injury. The jury was adjourned for the term

HURT AT WINCHESTER.

Gray Rind Has Narrow Escape

Gray Rind Has Narrow Escape.

Rev. Mr. Racey Will Die.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, VA., September 28.—
Gray Rind, son of Mrs. W. B. Rind, who is, visiting at Whitacre, this county, was smatched from the jaws of death yesterday just as a fronf wheel of a threshing machine was about to run over his body. He had fallen from a water cart behind a traction engine, and was saved from a frightful death by Robert Clark. A message from Whitacre, this county, to-night states that the doctors have given up hope of saving Rev. Calvin J. Racey, the United Brethren Church pastor of that place, who suffered the loss of his left arm and internal injuries at W. C. Whitacre's flouring mill yesterday by being caught in an entangled belt. His relatives in distant parts have been summoned.

HEAVY FINES ARE IMPOSED IN TWO CASES OF STEALING

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SOUTH BOSTON, VA., September 28.—
Claude Day, a young man of Roxboro, N. C., was arrested and fined $44.65 in the Mayor's Court yesterday merning.
Day was charged with stealing a saddle and bridle from a horse belonging to T. D. Winstead, of Roxboro, for which he was fined $14.65, and $30 for stealing clothing from South Boston Pressing Club. He was arrested by Detective A.
P. Spriggs, of this place. Day was formerly employed by the South Boston Electric Light and Power Company.

WELL-KNOWN NORFOLK MAN DISAPPEARS IN PANAMA

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORIFOLK, VA., September 28.—Mrs.
M. G. Ward, of Portsmouth, is alarmed at the news from Panama of the disappearance of her husband, He left home appearance or ner musicular transfer and in July and reported at Empire, Canal Zone, Panama, for work under the division engineer on August Sth, and then disappeared. The Ishmian Commission declares that he is missing and that is

OVERSTREET WILL RECOVER; BALDWIN ALLOWED BAIL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, VA., September 28.—Plysicians who examined Albert Overstreet, of Bedford, who was shot yesterday by Detective Albert Baldwin, say the ball went straight into him between the eighth and ninth ribs, revering a small artery, and unless blood poison sets in he will recover. Baldwin claimed that the gun was discharged as he struck Overstreet, and the ball went downward. Baldwin was balled in the sum of $1,000 this morning.

Richmonders in New York,
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Welcott—W. H.
Parris; Herald Square-R. C. Nelson; Hotel Astor-H. J. Myers, Jr., and wife.

Ainslie Carriage Company

.Runabouts at Cost...

We have in stock a number of high-grade, fully guaranteed Runabouts, rubber or steel tire, which we are selling at a sacrifice. These vehicles are strictly first class, and can be bought for the price of the

We are making a specialty of a Medium-Grade Buggy, and offer

Top Buggy for $50. Let us show you this Buggy.

The Life Insurance Co. of Va.

The Oldest and Largest Purely Southern Institution.

Ambitious and energetic men can make good and steadily ingreasing incomes through their connection with this company. Attractive zenewal contracts offered to the right men. Agents wanted throughout Virginia. Experience not necessary.

H. W. ELLERSON, General Agent,

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

Wall Paper and Decorations. . . .

Fine French, English, German, Japanese and American Wall Hangings, in Pressed Sliks, Brocades, Oriental Tapestries, Hand Tooled Leathers, and Grass Cloths, for Parlors, Dining Rooms, Dens; and beautiful stripes and rose trellis effects for Bed-Rooms, out out in graceful sprays on the ceiling, make very effective rooms. One visit to our store will convince you that we have the most elaborate line of goods ever shown here, and our work is unexcelled.

R. B. BRAUER, . . 208 N. 5th St.

Why Not Get Well

kidney and bladder troubles, uric acid, gout and rheumatism, phosphoric deposall forms of dyspepsia and all ills arising from a disordered stomach. Delivered fresh from spring dally.

Como Lithia Water Co.

Phone 2905.

DR. L. J. HAWKES, Prop'r.